

THE DIARY OF ANNE FRANK

Dramatized by Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett, based on the book Anne Frank: Diary of a Young Girl

Anne: (looking up through the skylight) Look, Peter, the sky. What a lovely day. Aren't the clouds beautiful? You know what I do when it seems as if I couldn't stand being cooped up for one more minute? I think myself out. I think myself on a walk in the park where I used to go with Pim. Where the daffodils and the crocus and the violets grown down the slopes You know the most wonderful things about thinking yourself out? You can have it any way you like. You can have roses and violets and chrysanthemums all blooming at the same time...It's funny...I used to take it all for granted...and now I've gone crazy about everything to do with nature. Haven't you?
